

CONSENT TO OPT OUT

Membership enquires 1800 642 634 writer@apra.com.au www.apraamcos.com.au

If you have a share in the performing right to someone's music and they seek permission from APRA to reclaim some of their performing rights, you need to complete this form to give your consent for that "opt-out". The member requesting the opt-out must submit this form with their original request.

In this document:

Music means the musical works (including any accompanying words) that you authorised APRA to administer in your membership agreement.

Performing Right means the rights to perform in public and communicate to the public (including broadcasting).

Print the name of the member requesting re-assignment of rights in the attached Request for Opt Out form.
